- We will have two movie nights the first 3rd October and second 5th December straight from school. With the same arrangements as the last one held £5 per child including a hotdog, drink and popcorn.

Treasurer's report

- There is £1491.53 in the bank account with £300 to come out for the bus to the pantomime in December
- Nicola is to ask Claire if there will paper required soon

School uniform

- Nicola is to ask other schools which companies they use for school uniform so that comparisons can be made on prices
- Depending on the price comparisons we could come up with different options for purchasing school uniforms
- It was suggested that a message should be sent out stating the items that are currently in the swap shop
- It was suggested that Leaver's hoodies would be investigated and possibly a contribution could be made

Future meeting dates

- 25th September at 6pm is the AGM
- 10th October 3:15pm
- 1st December at 5:30pm
- The rest of the dates will be decided in the new year

AOCB

- It was suggested that a parents Whatsapp group could be set up. It would only be for information on our events. Rules would be set and no school related items would be allowed.
- PVG's are to be looked into for those of us who attend and help at the events to find out if the free volunteer one is suitable
- Nicola is planning on holding a Decider skills sessions in person and on Teams. The children would be welcome to attend too. It would provisionally be 22nd September from 6pm until 7:30pm.
- There is a Meet the teacher event on 25th August from 3:15pm until 3:45pm.
- There is currently a job advertisement out for a PSA for 19.5 hours a week after Miss Robertson and Mrs Strachan left last term. There has already been several applications received
- It was suggested that an intergenerational volunteers would be contacted again to ask if they could visit the school

- The polytunnel requires repaired again and volunteers are needed to help and also to water the plants when planted in school holidays and weekends
- Nicola asked if we would like to add anything to the September newsletter. It was suggested that the dates of the events and also a bit about the Parent partnership could be added
- Victoria suggested that we should look more into the Connect system to help with the future running of the Parent Partnership
- The quiz team group will start again soon
- It was suggested that we should look into the school initiative run by Possible Estate agents
- Class 2 may have the opportunity to take part in a Choirs project
