

Primary 1-3 Block I 2026/27

Expressive Arts

Music

- I will listen to a range of music genres and share my opinions
- I will explore playing our classroom piano and match notes to the piano keys

Art

- I will experiment with a range of media
- I will learn about how to draw human form and use this skill in different contexts

Drama

- I will learn through drama linking to our topic storyline.

Health and Wellbeing

- I will learn about Healthy Eating and a balanced diet
- I will complete a 'Sensory Circuit' every morning to help prepare my body for learning
- I will learn about our core school values
- I will be developing fitness and developing control over moving my body.
- I will discover my rights and help create a class charter

RME

- I will be learning about Harvest

French

- I will be learning greetings, introductions, counting and the names of colours.

Literacy and English

Talking and Listening

- I will be developing my talking and listening skills through circle time and together time.
- I will practise phonic sounds and the alphabet song
- I will identify words which rhyme (sound the same)

Reading

- I will be learning to recognise and blend single letter sounds and diagraphs and developing my sight vocabulary.
- I will be sequencing and ordering parts of a story
- I will become a 'Story Engineer' by developing skills to solve problems found in books

Writing

- I will be developing my handwriting skills through accurate formation
- I will continue to improve my knowledge of spelling rules through Active Literacy activities.
- I will focus on Narrative writing

Maths

- Circles - recognise numbers to 10 and develop the correct number formation. Ordering and comparing less than/more than.
Triangles - numbers to 30, place value, ordering and sequencing, more then/less than Squares - Numbers above 100, place value, ordering and sequencing, more than/less than
- I will learn about the properties of 2D and 3D shapes
- I will develop my knowledge of pattern (like symmetry), both creating and identifying

Social Studies/Science

- As a 'Storybook Engineer', I will explore skills like estimating, building, planning, testing
- I will explore floating and sinking

Technologies

- I will be developing my digital skills by logging into a laptop
- I will use IDL platform to practise my literacy skills
- I will be sharing my learning and progress through SeeSaw