This year's theme is 'Play more'...and the campaign is calling on everyone to help make sure that children and young people across the UK have the time, freedom and space to play more. As well as promoting children's right to play, the campaign is highlighting the fact that playing more is crucial for children's health, wellbeing and happiness.

The Perth & Kinross Playday event will be held on the South Inch, Perth on Wednesday 5th August between 10am and 3pm.

There will be a range of activities including bouncy castles, face painting, arts & crafts, tri golf, baby soft play area, swing boats, cups & saucers, drama workshops and much, much more.
