Week 7: 22 February – 26 February 2021

English, Literacy & Drama

English – Mrs Basford, Mrs Forbes and Mrs McIntosh's classes will be exploring the context of "Of Mice and Men" by John Steinbeck, prior to study of the novel. Mrs Wilkie and Mrs Craig's classes will be working on persuasive techniques through the study of adverts. Support will be provided through live lessons on MS Teams each period

Drama – Pupils are creating a short piece of drama about Human Rights. This week, they will be choosing the type of staging and thinking about what they want to communicate through scenery & set dressing for their devised drama. Live meets and resources will be on Teams.

Social Subjects

Geography – The class will be looking at how people use the tundra. There will be live meetings followed by supported tasks. Assignments on Teams will check for understanding.

Modern Studies – Pupils will begin the first section of the new unit on "Social Issues - Crime and the Law." They should participate in a live lesson with Mrs Russell to look at the official categories of crime and government statistics on crime rates in Scotland. They will then use supported materials to complete the independent tasks related to the live lesson.

History – Continuing to deepen understanding of African societies pre and during the Atlantic Slave Trade – a mixture of live lesson, discussion, clips and pupil tasks (please note final call for any Research projects on Conflict which should have been submitted).

Modern Languages

All S3 pupils will focus on writing and talking about their weekend at level 3 and level 4. There will also be an online Live Meet where the teacher will work one to one with pupils to explain the tasks and give feedback, followed by links to Quizlet and Wordwall and Blooket activities (posted in threads) as well as Youtube videos. Learners will also be given time to watch the recorded Lesson and complete Teams assignments and quizzes.

PSE/PSU

PSE- Focus on healthy online working during remote learning.

Music
