Week 9: 8 March – 12 March 2021

English, Literacy & Drama

English – Mrs Basford, Mrs Forbes and Mrs McIntosh’s classes will explore characterisation in “Of Mice and Men” by John Steinbeck.

Mrs Craig and Mrs Wilkie’s classes will continue to work on persuasive techniques through creating their own print advertisements.
Support will be provided through Live Lessons on Microsoft Teams each period.

Drama – Pupils are creating a short piece of drama about Human Rights. This week, they will focus on rehearsing their drama and record it (voice over).
Live meets and resources will be on Teams.

Social Subjects

Geography – Pupils will be researching the impact oil exploration has had on Alaska by carrying out some independent research into the Exxon Valdez disaster. Live lessons will support independent research.

Modern Studies – Classes will start to investigate the different causes of crime, such as biological, social and economic. They should participate in a live lesson with Mrs Russell at the start of the week then use supported materials to complete the independent tasks set as assignments.

History – The Atlantic Slave Trade topic - African society – continuation of the study of Mali and Benin before and during the slave trade era. Work, video clips and live lessons on Teams. Miss Fitzsimon – work on Google classroom.

Modern Languages

All S3 pupils will focus on writing and talking about their weekend at level 3 and level 4. We will continue to learn a new role-play: ‘Going out’. There will also be an online Live Meet where the teacher will work one to one with pupils to explain the tasks and give feedback, followed by links to Quizlet, Wordwall and Blooket activities (posted in threads) as well as Youtube videos. Learners will also be given time to watch the recorded lesson and complete Teams assignments and quizzes.
