

Life in Victorian Ardblair

Family Activity Afternoon!

Come along to the museum to learn about life in the 19th century. Be inspired by the new display A Lost Community: Muirton of Ardblair and find out about daily life for those who lived in there. Meet Alder Archaeology Unit and find out about evidence from the past for this time period.

Other activities will include object handling quiz, writing with slates and ink pens, spinning and weaving, make a peg doll, build your own croft, sheet and napkin folding.

Date and time: 10th of November / 1:30pm to 3:30pm

Venue: Perth Museum and Art Gallery

Admission: Free, Booking is not required, just turn up and enjoy!

Please note that this event is suitable for all ages and children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult during the event.