I am poem

By Callum

I am a sleepy boy who woke up late

I wonder if it could snow

I hear children screaming whilst playing games

I see a laptop

I want to be rich

I am a sleepy boy who woke up late

I pretend to play my PS5 when im outside

I feel tired even though I had good sleep yesterday

I touch the keys on the laptop

I worry about bandit when hes on a walk

I cry if my favorite character dies in a movie

I am sleepy because i woke up late

I understand that when my pet dies, it cant come back

I say I'm hungry

I dream that im in bed when im at school

I try to go to sleep

I hope my parents never die

I am a sleepy boy who woke up late
