

I am poem

Jake liddle

I am a caring person who likes cats.

I wonder if i will become famous from my talent

I hear ringing in quiet places

I see my hamster nibbling on seeds

I want a cat

I am a caring person who likes cats.

I pretend i play guitar in guitar hero 2

I feel devastated when a pet or loved one dies

I touch my desk when thinking

I worry about wind and storms

I cry when i talk about feelings with someone i trust

I am a caring person who likes cats.

I understand my friends

I say hamsters are cute

I dream of the day ahead

I try to learn more piano songs one by one

I hope my family stays the way it is

I am a caring person who likes cats.
