welcome

Welcome to our SummerFest 2017 brochure which is packed with information about what's going on during the biggest and best youth arts festival of its kind in the UK organised, produced and directed by the team from PACE Theatre Company who have been inspiring and celebrating the artistic achievements of young people for over 25 years.

Inside you'll find everything you need to know about all the exciting and creative performances and workshop projects taking place throughout the summer holidays.

All our festival events have been designed to guarantee an enjoyable, creative and memorable experience for those taking part and we aim to create both professional and innovative performances as well as artistic projects which are inspirational, educational and motivational for all the participants.

So... don't hang around... read on, book up and join in for a brilliantly creative summer.

Community Justice

RENFREWSHIRE

The opportunity to create a better community

What is community justice?

Community justice is protecting the community. As well as delivering justice for the victims of offending and making our communities feel safer, it's about working with people with convictions to give them the support and help they need to reduce the risk of re-offending.

Who are Community Justice Renfrewshire?

What are our priorities?

We will focus on:

- 1) Prevention and earlier intervention
- 2) Reduce offending and re-offending
- 3) Increase awareness of Community Justice Renfrewshire and its role

Key Priorities

Employability
Alternatives to custody
Homelessness for prison leavers
Gender Based Violence
Support to children and families
