

Values in Action at Arkleston

Classroom	Success	Teamwork	Attitude	Respect
Pupils	Be grateful for the opportunities given. Appreciate the classroom environment, the right of everyone to an education. Learn new things to develop your skills. Be happy in your classroom. Be curious experiment and make mistakes. Create things that are different and new.	Work as a team to learn with others and reflect on our achievements. To keep your classroom tidy. Be fair – share and take care of resources. Take turns. Take opportunities to Lead your learning and support others.	Be honest about your learning and actions. Use control – Take a moment to pause and breathe before making a choice. Wait when an adult is busy or others are talking. Be willing to be brave and try everything you are asked to do and to make mistakes. Use a growth mindset.	Be kind to others through my words and actions. Be a friend to others, listening and supporting them. Appreciate the work created by others. Be open to the ideas of others. Use caution when commenting on the work of others.
Staff	Have hope, expect the best of others and work hard to achieve it. Be open to children leading their learning and play and taking this in a new direction. Create new and exciting ways for children to access learning. Be brave enough to try new and different ways of doing things. Be happy in your work life, creating a positive learning environment for all.	Working as a team stage partners working and planning together. Lead developments within our school to share your skills and talents with others. Be fair when listening to others and making decisions. Be open to different ways of doing things.	Use humour sensitively to create a positive environment. Be open to different views and opinions. Be wise identifying own strengths and development needs. Appreciate the resources you have, making sure the classroom environment is safe, tidy and clean.	Be kind to others through actions and comments. Be a friend, listening and responding to others. Appreciate the unique talents and experiences of others. Forgive others who make mistakes. Be wise thinking about what you say and the impact it has on others.
Parents	Try to encourage your child to complete their homework and to come to school ready for learning. Be curious and ask your child what they have been learning in school.	Be honest about things that are happening out with school, which may affect your child in school and share these with us. Forgive us when we make mistakes.	Appreciate that we make decisions in the best interests of all children, which you may not always agree with. Be open to different sides of a story. We try to find out what has happened from multiple perspectives.	Be kind to others through actions and comments. Be wise, thinking about what you say and the impact it has on others.