Gold Clubs

P1 - P3 pupils will be enjoying a different club every Friday for the next 5 weeks. These clubs include Cooking, Art and an Exploration club where the children will be going out to the Bluebell Woods. P4 - P7 pupils have selected their favourite club and will remain with the club for 5 weeks to develop a specific skills. Some of the clubs on offer this session are Dance, Table Tennis, Pokemon, Coding and Gardening. Please ask your child about their club and have a look on our school blog for photographs.

Achievements

We will be having our first Red Carpet assembly of the session over the next couple of weeks. Please send in your child's achievements using the slip at the bottom of the newsletter. This could be a sporting achievement, a goal that they have been working towards or perhaps something that they have done in the house that is worth celebrating.

Active Schools Clubs

We are in the final stages of organising the Active Schools clubs for week beginning 12 September. We will issue letters next week with more information.

Football

Ryan Tait, our football coach will be starting P5 - P7 football training on Wednesday 7 September. Pupils who are interested in attending will be issued with a letter and consent form. Football training costs £1 per session.

Task Force

Bobby's after school club, Task Force, will return on Tuesday 6 September. Please ensure you have returned the consent form if you wish to attend.

Tony Gervaise Football Club

Tony will be starting up his Friday lunchtime Football Club next week. This will be open to P3 - P5 pupils. Pupils should give their names to Miss Newlove next week. The cost is £1 per session.

Primary 1 Gazette Photograph - Thursday 8 September

The photographer from The Gazette will take the P1 class photograph on Thursday 8 September. Please ensure your child wears a shirt and tie on this day.

Thank you
