

World Book Day at Langcraigs!

On Thursday 6th March we will be celebrating World Book Day. We are not doing costumes this year, instead, we are going to make bedtime stories our theme.

Children can come to school wearing pyjamas and, if possible, bring with them their favourite book to share with their class.

We are also going to run a book swap on the 6th of March so if you have any old children's books you would like to donate, could they please be handed in to school for Tuesday 4th March. Children will then have the opportunity to pick a new book to enjoy at home.

In addition to this, we thought it would be fun to run a school wide photo competition of children reading in unusual places. If you want to take part, take a photo of your child reading somewhere odd e.g. under the table, in the dog's bed, in a tree etc. The link below has more information and ideas.

<https://www.countingtoten.co.uk/2024/02/reading-in-unusual-places-challenge-ideas.html>

Once you have taken your photo/photos, please submit them by Friday the 7th March by email to either:

gw11stewartlisa4@glow.sch.uk or gw07mullenangela3@glow.sch.uk

All photos will be displayed at assembly the following week and prizes for the most unusual place in P1-3, P4-5 & P6-7 will be handed out then too.

Thanks,

Miss Stewart/Mrs Mullen