

Looking for a job but unsure where to start? Start with us.

Fair Start Scotland is here to help you get into work.

Offering support that's tailored to you and your needs, developing the skills you already have, completing work-ready qualifications and preparing you for work. Better yet, support won't stop once you're working, we'll continue to help for the first year.

How we can help

Your dedicated work coach will help you to identify your skills, strengths and anything that might be holding you back from a job.

- Specialist support tailored to you and your needs
- Training to get you ready for your next step
- Exciting ways to develop your skills
- Volunteering opportunities to gain vital work experience
- Help with job searches, CV's, job applications and interview prep
- Help to connect with employers, find work placements and match you with jobs. We can even support you to set up your own business.

With you every step of the way

Our team are here to help you for a full year, 18 months in some cases. Once you're working, we'll be on hand to help settle you in too.

We're also here to provide extra support if you have a disability or health condition, need help with reading, writing or numbers, have addiction issues, have care responsibilities or have previous convictions.
