

Applying for Child Disability Payment

Extra money to help with the costs of caring for a child with a disability or long-term health condition.

What is Child Disability Payment?

Child Disability Payment provides support for the extra costs that a disabled child might have.

Who can apply?

If you are a parent, carer or appointee, you can apply on behalf of a child who is older than three months up to 16 years old. The child must have lived with a disability or long term health condition for three months or more and it is expected to continue for at least 6 months, unless they are terminally ill.

16 year olds and above will need to apply for the Department for Work and Pension's Personal Independence Payment and will have their award transferred to Adult Disability Payment at a later date.

You can apply if the child's disability has not yet been diagnosed. You can tell us about any symptoms they have and how they are affected. It could be a health condition, where the child has care and support needs, mental, emotional or physical disabilities or behavioural development issues.

How are the payment rates calculated?

The payment rate is based on 2 parts, care and mobility. Care component reflects how much looking after a child needs. The mobility component reflects the level of help a child needs to get around. There are three weekly rates for care:

- lowest: £24.45 the child needs some help and support for a significant part of the day
- middle: £61.85 the child needs frequent help and support during the day or at night
- highest: £92.40 the child needs help and support during the day and at night

There are two weekly rates for mobility:

- lower: £24.45 (for children aged 5 and over) for children who need supervision or guidance when moving around outdoors
- higher: £64.50 (for children aged 3 and over) – for children who cannot walk, have difficulty walking, or have a severe visual or mental health disability

When will the payment be made?

If successful, the child's first payment will be calculated from the date the first part of your online application was submitted or from the date you phoned us to start the application process, if you applied by phone and paper form.

Child Disability Payment is paid every 4 weeks in arrears. It will be paid into the account you give as part of your application.

Can I apply for any related benefits?
