7th March 2022

*Our School Values: Kindness, Respect, Honesty
Our School Vision: A community of excellence and opportunity for all*

Dear Parent/ Carer,

Staffing Update

Today we welcome Mrs Karen Green to our school community. Mrs Green replaces Mrs Drummond as Senior Clerical Officer.

Mrs Kate Teese will continue to work in our school office each morning.

Feast of St John Ogilvie

On Thursday 10th March we plan to take Primary 4, 5, 6 and 7 to St Mirin's Cathedral for 10am Mass. Primary 1- 3 will watch the mass via the live stream. Please can I ask that all pupils in P4-7 wear their full school uniform (shirt and tie). On this day the Parent Partnership have provided a treat for all pupils. This will be Haribo and Walkers crisps.

SCIAF

From Monday 14th March – Friday 25th March we will be selling leaves for our SCIAF Tree of Hope. By giving a donation, pupil can purchase a leaf and write a message of hope to support our fundraising for SCIAF this Lent. Leaves will be available to buy every day during lunchtime.

School Menu

On Thursday the 10th March chocolate sponge and custard will be added to the lunch options.

Parent Partnership 100 Club Draw

Well done to:

1. Honor Harkin - £90
2. Kerri McGinnity - £45
3. Aileen O'Keefe - £22.50

If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact the school office.

Yours,

Lorna Murray (Head Teacher)
