Common questions

How do I nominate someone?

It's easy! Download and complete the nomination form, telling us why you are nominating this person or group. Save the form and email it to provostawards@renfrewshire.gov.uk. That's all you need to do at this stage.

What happens next?

Once we have received your nomination form, we will write to confirm that we have received it. The nominations will be judged by our Community Awards Panel, made up of business representatives and councillors from political parties. We may also get in touch with you to ask some more questions about the person you have nominated, so it's important that you make sure you include your contact details on the form.

I've nominated this person before. Can I do it again?

Yes, they will still be considered.

Can I nominate a relative for an award?

Yes, you can nominate a relative for an award in any category.

When do the awards take place?

We will invite winning candidates and the people who nominated them to the Provost's Community Awards ceremony in March 2022.

Is the nomination form available in other formats?

Yes. The form is available in large print, Braille, on compact disc or on audio tape. For information, please call 0141 618 7396.

If you need help filling in this form, please phone the Provost's Office on 0141 618 7102.

The judges' decision is final and the judges will not discuss their decision with you. Councillors cannot make direct nominations for the Community Awards.

Please return your completed form to:
provostawards@renfrewshire.gov.uk

We could not deliver the Provost's Community Awards without the outstanding support and contribution of our sponsors. Many thanks for their continuing support.
