

Trinity Skills Academy

Over the course of study leave a group of Senior Students have been working hard on a variety of courses in the school. These include Level 5 Barista, Level 5 Scots Language, Literacy & Numeracy (various levels), Level 5 Personal Development and Level 5 Leadership.

As part of their project they are organising the “Wee Blether” for local parishioners and members of our community. This will take place on Tuesday 14th May (AM). If you are available on the morning please join us for Mass (8.30am) and then some tea, coffee and cake afterwards. Full details and menu is attached to this blog.

Duke of Edinburgh

Our S3 Pupils are well underway with their DofE Bronze Award. This week they did a mock expedition to prepare for their upcoming assessments. The group had some great weather and had a lovely time visiting the Gleniffer Braes.

Ascension Thursday

All pupils and staff had the opportunity to celebrate Mass on this important Feast Day. Whilst at Mass Trinity staff and pupils joined with parishioners from St. James’ to reflect on Jesus’ Ascension into heaven and hear how we now prepare to receive the Holy Spirit on the Feast of Pentecost (19th May)
