School Closure – Friday 24th January 2025

Dear Parent / Carer,

As you will be aware The Met Office have now issued a red weather warning for Renfrewshire and parts of Scotland due to very strong winds associated with Storm Éowyn on Friday 24th January 2025 from 10am until 5pm. As such Trinity High School will be closed on Friday 24th January.

I wanted to provide the following update:

- If you need to contact the school for any reason during this date, please do not hesitate to email trinityhighenquiries@renfrewshire.gov.uk and someone will get back to you.
- Please note the school telephone switchboard will not be in operation.
- Due to the timing of the school closure, pupils have been signposted to a range of resources online, these include:
  - Satchel One (for homework tasks already set)
  - Individual departmental Microsoft Teams / Google Classrooms
  - e-Sgoil (accessed via glow)
  - Achieve (online resources for national qualifications accessed via <https://letsachieve.co.uk/> and registering using code grToM7fv)
  - BBC Bitesize <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize>
  - Twig (online videos and quizzes in science areas accessed via Glow)
- If you normally receive a free school meal payment during the holiday periods, you will receive a payment for Friday 24 January 2025 as part of the next payment.
- For advice and guidance to support positive mental health please visit

Please continue to visit the following website for updated advice and guidance regarding the severe weather:

<https://www.renfrewshire.gov.uk/article/14390/Changes-and-closures-to-services-due-to-severe-weather>

We are expecting the school to be open as normal on Monday 27th January. I hope that you and your families remain safe, please follow the weather and travel advice from the Met Office and Police Scotland.

Yours faithfully

P. Marshall
Head Teacher
