

P4W Behaviour Guide

At our school we use positive behaviour management to encourage and reward children for making the right choices in their behaviour. This is based on the values of our school which are respect, co-operation, equality, honesty & responsibility.

Alloway is a Gold Rights Respecting School and our class charters underpin behaviour management in classrooms. These charters are created and agreed by the children.

In Primary 4W our class charter is -

Article	Rights holders (children) will:	Duty bearers (adults) will:
12 - The right to share their opinion and be listened to.	When one person is speaking, we are listening. If we want to share, we raise our hand and wait. When it is time to listen, we sit quietly.	Grow ups will listen to us when we have something to say. Remind other to be respectful and to listen and to not talk over others.
13 - The right to share their ideas unless it harms other people.	We will not say or do things that hurt other people. We will be kind to each other. We will think before we speak. If we see someone being harmed, we will tell a grown up.	Adults will deal with any issues in the classroom or playground. Teachers will work with parents to sort out problems.
29 - The right to an education that develops talents and abilities	We will always try our best. We will have a go, even if something is hard. We will try to come to school on time. We will bring out PE kit. We will do our homework and bring it back to school on Thursday.	Adults will make sure our classroom is clean, safe and organised.

Playground Charter

Our playground charter below is shared with all pupils and staff to ensure children are respectful of each other's rights in the playground as well as in class -

We have the right to play - Article 31

- We will play by the rules and allow others to join in our games.

We have the right to be safe - Article 24

- We will use playground equipment sensibly and treat others as we would like to be treated.

We have the right to be heard - Article 12

- We will be honest, listen to others and speak respectfully.

We have the right to medical care - Article 6

- We will play sensibly, help others and accept help when we need it.

Rewards for Positive Behaviour

- Positive recognition for making the correct choices will be given through verbal praise in class and around the school.
- Individual and group points are given in class.
- House Points are given in class and throughout the school.
- Stickers and Certificates are given to pupils as rewards.
- Good behaviour is celebrated on Friday afternoons in classrooms through Masterclass.

Disrespectful Behaviour

Children are rewarded for making positive choices and showing respect however if disrespectful behaviour continues, teachers will take appropriate action. This may include individual chats to support pupils, contacting parents and informing senior management in order to support children in making the right choices.
