

Watching the Moon Landing

Using your planning sheet and vocabulary mat to help you, write a diary entry from the perspective of a child watching the Moon landing on television in 1969. What were you thinking and feeling? Write about the experience using your senses.

Make sure that your writing includes:

- personal pronouns (I, my, we, me) and is written in the first person;
- ambitious vocabulary to describe your point of view;
- time conjunctions and adverbials, e.g. 'after that'.

Dear Diary,

What an incredible day I have had! It all began when _____

As the Lunar Module landed on the Moon, _____

When Neil Armstrong set foot on the Moon, I felt _____

I will never forget today because _____

Handwriting practice lines consisting of 20 horizontal lines.

