

Health & Wellbeing

What Do I Want?

Lesson 4: What do we mean by work?

Learning intention

We are learning to recognise different jobs people do and what we mean by work ethic

Success criteria

- I can identify jobs people do
- I can explain what we mean by work
- I can explain what we mean by work ethic

Task 1

Answer the questions that are shown on this sheet.

Questions:	Responses
Why do people have to work at all?
Is all work paid for?
Do we work at our hobbies and interests?
What is a career?
Do we need to enjoy the work we do?
Is being unemployed considered to be work?
Can we be happy if we don't have a job?
Is volunteering work?
Is being a pupil at school considered to be work?
Is being a parent considered to be work?
Is gardening considered to be work?
Is learning at school work?

Task 2

Now that I know what you think about work we are going to have a look at what kind of jobs people do.

For this task you need to answer yes or no to if you think these jobs exist in a school

Complete the task and discuss your answers with someone at home.

Jobs	Yes	No
Administrator
Pupil Support Assistant
Cleaner
Dinner Hall Assistant
Deputy Head
English as a Second Language Tutor
Head Teacher
Nurse
Part - Time Tutor
Secretary
Supply Teacher
Teacher
Visiting Speaker
Playground Supervisor
Janitor
Entertainer

Task 3

I would like you to choose a job that you said did exist in a school and think about the skills, qualities and qualifications you think you would need to be able to do this job. You may need to do some research on the internet or ask an adult to help you.

Use the template provided to help you note down what you find.

Job Title:

Qualifications required:

Skills and qualities required:

What tools, materials or equipment are needed to carry out this job?

Task 4

1. I would like you to research the term 'work ethic' and write down what it means.
2. I want you to think about what job you would like to do when you are older and consider if it will be important for you to have a good work ethic