

P5

I am available on Teams every day between the hours of 9 am - 3 pm to support with learning.

All links to websites are hyperlinked. Click the link and it will take you straight to where you need to go! Remember, this is only a guide. Do little and often but please aim to complete Literacy, Maths and HWB tasks.

Literacy

A suggested timetable (only a suggestion. Please complete the work in a routine that suits you)

Mon - Spelling
Tues - Reading Skills
Wed - Reading Skills
Thurs - Reading Skills
Fri - Writing Skills

Aim to practise your spelling words for around 10 minutes each day.

Spelling

Copy new words out each week. New words in P5 Home Learning document. Please make sure you copy the correct words. You should remember which book you use in class.

Use wordart.com to make a word cloud with your spelling words. Login details in P5 Home Learning document. (page 3)

Reading

Boys and girls, we need to increase the weekly reading to 3 chapters in order to finish the book by end of the school year. We can do it! Further info found in the P5 Home Learning document. (pages 4-6)

W/C 18.05.20	Task
Day 1 Read Chapter 15	Chapter 15 6 questions

Day 3 Read Chapter 17	Chapter 17 6 questions

W/C 25.05.20	Task
Day 1 Read Chapter 18	Chapter 18 6 questions
Day 2 Read Chapter 19	No questions
Day 3 Read Chapter 20	Chapter 20 6 questions

Writing

One thing that makes me really happy is reading positive pieces of news. Sometimes the news can be quite sad and depressing, but other times it can be very uplifting. Last year I came across this amazing newspaper called 'The Happy Newspaper' published quarterly by Emily Coxhead. The paper only reports on happy news. She started her own paper to remind people that there's so many good things happening in the world.

Your task is to design a front cover for The Happy Newspaper. You must try and find some happy news stories and write about them and illustrate them. Please see page 9-10 of the P5 Home Learning document for further information.

Accelerated Reading

Accelerated Reading

Remember to read for enjoyment every single day. (20 minutes min) Use the link on the website to quiz on Accelerated Reading. Make sure you use your Reading Diary to record all reading and scores. I am tracking your activity and progress. Keep track of how many bookworms I owe you! I have sent instructions to your parents about how to access books digitally using Epic! Please check this out if you haven't already.

Numeracy and Maths

Login details for Sumdog are inside your purple jotter and logins for TT Rockstars have been emailed to your parents. I will be tracking your activity and progress on all websites.

Week 1 w.c 01.06.20 and Week 2 w.c 08.06.20

- Please complete the Volume, Area and Perimeter tasks that I have set out in the P5 Home Learning document. Further information is included within the document. (pages 14-24) This is over 2 weeks.
- Week 1: Sumdog challenge. This is revision of work already covered in class. I am tracking activity and I will be sending a reward of coins to those boys and girls who are working hard.
- Week 2: We are enrolled to take part in the Times Tables Rockstars competition, Scotland Rocks! This begins on the 8th June at 3pm. Visit <https://ttrockstars.com/> to play or download the free app.
- I have made a mental maths challenge for you using Kahoot. Kahoot is an app which is free to download or you can access here:- <https://kahoot.it/>. Pin no: 01321582.
- No Education City homework from me this week.

Chilli Challenge

I have included a McDonalds Chilli Challenge in the P5 Home Learning Document (pages 30-34)

- 3 levels of challenge
 - Mild
 - Hot
 - Flamin' Hot

Mrs Cairn

Mrs Cairn has also set some RME, French and Science activities. Look out for her tasks in the Additional Home Learning Section.

Health and Wellbeing

Miss Thomson has found a really great resource called 'Netflex', which has been added to our Additional Home Learning section. 'Netflex' is the 'Netflix' of fitness and workouts, so have a browse and pick an activity that suits you. The document is fully interactive so all you need to do is click on the image that you wish to view.

Complete the activities from your Wellbeing Bingo grid on page 7 of the P5 Home Learning document. Please make sure you are taking care of your mental health!

IDL Projects

You will need the P5 Home Learning document to accompany this grid. You can find this in the Additional Home Learning grids section ☆☆☆

The Boy at the Back of the Class tasks - pages 4-6.

Continue with Apple 30 days of creative activities (only if you have an iPad or an iPhone) See last grid for details.

Art and Design

Week 1: Curious Ostrich art

This lesson was shared on Twitter by another Scottish teacher, Mr McMahon. It's a fabulous lesson for exploring the visual elements of line, colour and texture. I've uploaded the lesson to my OneDrive (hyperlink below), so you should be able to access video from there. Please let me know if you have any problems accessing this.

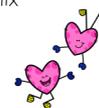

Week 2: Romero Britto self-portraits

This week, we will be learning about Romero Britto and creating fun self-portraits in the style of him. P4 have an amazing Romero Britto themed display in our hall so you will already be familiar with a piece of his work. Can you follow the lesson and create your own bright, fun, Romero Britto inspired portrait? Use the link below to begin the lesson. <https://youtu.be/YP-Ua9qh5Is>

Music

Remixes are a huge part of the music industry. I am giving you two different versions of the same song to listen to. One is the original and one is the remix (remastered version) There is a listening task for you to complete as you listen. Full details can be found in the P5 Home Learning Document. (p8)

Become an illustrator

JK Rowling has written a new story called 'The Ickabog', which is being made available online, in instalments, to read for free. The most exciting part is that JK Rowling needs you to illustrate her new story. Check out the website below to read the story and find details of the competition. <https://www.theickabog.com/home/>
