Gaiety Theatre Panto – Tuesday 3rd December – Morning performance

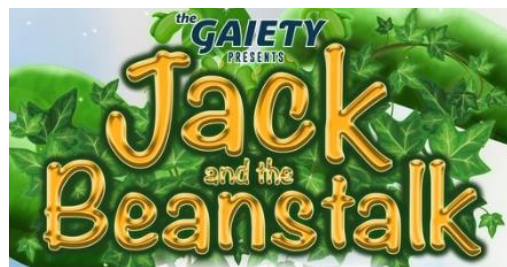

Our trip to the Gaiety Theatre to see Jack & the Beanstalk will take place on Tuesday 3rd December 2019. All pupils in Primary 1 to Primary 7 will have the opportunity to go along and enjoy the show. The cost for a family of 4 to attend the panto would be £72. We are planning to subsidise the cost of the panto (£18 each) and the transport (£520) through fundraising efforts. Therefore, the cost per pupil, including transport will be £15 for the first child in a family and £12 for subsequent children, which is a greatly reduced price.

The pantomime will commence at 10am so the bus will pick the children up at 9.00am at the school and collect them from the Gaiety at 12.15pm. The children are welcome to take a healthy snack and a drink of juice or water. Please do not send chocolate, large bags of sweets or fizzy drinks. The children will have their lunch and a break on their return to the school. Children can purchase a packed lunch for £2.15 or bring a packed lunch. The normal menu will not be available and there will not be any home dinners on this day.

We would be grateful if you could return the slip below, giving permission for your child/children to attend and enclose the appropriate money towards the cost. If you wish to pay in instalments then please return the permission slip and you can pay at the school office anytime up to Friday 29th November when all money must be paid in full.

Yours sincerely
