VE DAY, 75 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

BY KYLE FLANNIGAN

VE day or Victory in Europe Day is a celebration that marks the day that World War 2 ended. On 8th of May 1945, Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill announced the war had come to an end, following Germany's surrender. Many people were extremely happy that the fighting had stopped and there were big celebrations and street parties. Huge crowds - with lots of people dressed in red, white and blue gathered outside Buckingham Palace in London.

CELEBRATING VE DAY
Eilidh made some bunting for her next door neighbour and discovered he was a mechanic in the army during the war. Gran Elsie had some great stories too

COVID-19 UPDATE

Scotland remains locked down for 3 more weeks

BY KYLE FLANNIGAN & CHRIS DAWSON

Nicola Sturgeon announced last week that we will stay in lockdown for another 3 weeks. Our daily exercise routine has been upped to more than once a day if we want. In England, people who cannot work from home return to their workplaces as they begin easing some of its lockdown measures. There has been concern that trains and buses were too busy to observe social distancing rules.

Staycation worry

Holidays in the UK could be popular if foreign travel is off limits this summer with risk of further infection.

You've had your chips

A newly opened drive through Burger King in Moray has been forced to close due to long queues of traffic waiting to be served.

STAR OF THE WEEK

BY LAUCHLAN MACLEAN

Well done to Ben Pearson in creating your very own comic book, Agency X - X Force. You really are a star!

WITH PARTY PALZ

BY NEVE LANG, LAUCHLAN MACLEAN AND CHLOE MELDRUM

THIS week we are celebrating our very own Dance Week through the Heathfield Facebook page.

Look out for staff TikToks, get the curtains closed and the disco ball looked out because we are having a Live Virtual Disco, today at 2pm. Last week was Movie week with a different movie theme each day. Guess what the theme was for May the 4th? I'm sure the force is with everyone now.

We will be sprinting into Sports week from Monday and to finish it off, a Virtual Sports Day on Friday the 22nd. Don't miss it!
