

Literacy and English

Reading: whole school reading 'Can I Build Another Me?'; class novel, Swimming Against the Storm; ERIC daily reading for enjoyment in class; non-fiction texts to support all learning.

Writing: Persuasive, Recount, Setting

Listening and Talking: Note-taking from multi-media sources; sharing ideas in groups/Houses; asking and answering literal, inferential and evaluative questions.

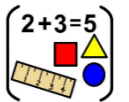

Numeracy and Mathematics

Place Value: whole numbers and decimals to thousandths

Operations of Number: solving addition, subtraction, multiplication, division

Rounding and Estimating: rounding decimals numbers up to thousandths, rounding whole numbers to millions

Multiples, Factors and Primes

Health and Well-Being and PE

PE: Basketball, Rugby,

Kingcase Junior Leadership Team: lunchtime squads (duties around school); lunch clubs for younger pupils; House Leadership; buddies to P2.

Building Resilience, Year 2

Online safety

Class Study (IDL/Topic)

Our Coastline

Combination of classroom-based and outdoor learning at Prestwick beach.

Focus areas include: mapping, classification of marine creatures; the rock cycle; volcanoes (Scotland's volcanic past); mapping; sustainability; water safety.

Art and Design Contexts and Skills:

Principal elements of art.

Drawing skills focusing on increasing accuracy in observational work.

Watercolour painting.

3D sculpture using found objects (related to Our Coastline IDL)

Music and Drama Contexts and Skills:

Weekly music with Mrs Holmes including singing and percussion.

R.E:

Exploration of Humanism, its symbols and beliefs

Modern Languages Topics:

French greetings and all about moi including links to class novel Swimming Against the Storm.

STEM (including Digital Technology) Contexts and links to Creativity:

Science: Exploration of the rock cycle including classification and experiments.

Digital technologies: working knowledge of platforms such as MS Teams, One Note, MS Forms.

Typing skills using touch typing app,

Nessy Fingers (also accessible online at home).

Textile technologies: sewing fabric bags.

Reminders:

PE days Tuesdays with Mr Reid; Fridays with Ayr Rugby coaches.

P7 Beach School: Thursdays, Term 1 – please bring waterproof jacket every week!

Parents appointments: Thursday 8th October