Top Study Tips

What are your top tips for success in this subject?

N5:

- Always explain all erosional processes to gain maximum marks in formation questions.
- In mapping, always give map evidence by providing a named example or grid reference.
- In Global Issues skills question, you must read the graph/map accurately and give data/locations from the source.

HIGHER:

- Learn named examples for each glacial and coastal landforms.
- Always explain all erosional processes to gain maximum marks in formation questions.
- Learn case study names and key facts for Population, Urban and Rural topics.
- In mapping, always give map evidence by providing a named example or grid reference.

Useful Resources

Textbooks, revision guides, class materials etc.

- Each unit has a booklet with key information and model answers.
- Weekly timelines have been issued to pupils and are on Teams to make pupils aware of assessment dates and work to catch up on if absent.
- Pupils have past paper booklets with model answers for all possible questions in the N5 and Higher courses.
- Miss Irvine posts weekly updates on Teams about what we have covered that week. Make sure you review this and catch up on any work you have missed that week.

Websites & Online Support

Useful websites, online tools or apps.

- RSGS Chalk Talks. These are videos explaining each Geography topic from all 3 units. <https://www.rsgs.org/chalk-talks>
- Achieve. An excellent online resource that has notes, quizzes and links to past paper questions for each topic.
- Internet Geography. Key notes and diagrams on landform formations. <https://www.internetgeography.net/>
- BBC Bitesize. Revision quizzes and short notes on each topic.
- Class Team. All ppts and materials are found in the class team as well as links to online resources.

Additional Information

Any other advice, support or information that may be helpful.

- Use the materials provided and take time to consolidate your work. Do not leave studying to the last minute as the course content is significant.
- Continue to do timed questions in class once a week to build up bank of questions and answers.
- Complete all homework and review teacher feedback.
- Attend Grade Booster sessions.
