Top Study Tips

What are your top tips for success in this subject?

At the end of each topic be organised and create flash cards or mind maps to help condense the course content/essays.

Create timelines to help your understanding of key time periods.

Complete past paper questions & hand these in to get feedback.

Time yourself to see if you can meet the timings of the exam.

Use a traffic light system with the course descriptors - any highlighted in red should be your main focus.

Study in a pair or with friends - use each others skills to improve.

Create a who's who of key individuals in the Scottish Wars of Independence.

Useful Resources

Textbooks, revision guides, class materials etc.

Course booklets - these have been created to include all of the content that you will need.

Class Teams - booklets and useful documents for the course will be stored here.

Essay guides for the British topic and Germany topic will be held out at the end of each course.

Scottish Wars of Independence Revision Guide and Revision notes will be handed out before the prelim.

Websites & Online Support

Useful websites, online tools or apps.

Make sure that you have signed up to Achieve

Gizmo is a really good flashcard app which also allows you to share your resources with other students in the school.

Additional Information

Any other advice, support or information that may be helpful.

Everything you need to be successful in the exam will be made available to you.

For Higher History there needs to be a real focus on memory. Create revision materials and go over them time and time again. This will ensure a strong knowledge of key points.

Structures are important - learn these carefully and this will ensure your success.

Being smart with your time is key - in the essay section of the exam we would prefer you wrote two good essays in 1 hour and a half rather than one excellent essay with no time spared for the next one.
