St. Ninian's Primary Class Overview Term 1 Primary 4

- Article 28: The child's right to education.
- Article 29: The goals to which a child's education should be directed, and the right of individual adults to establish and direct educational institutions

Literacy and English

- Children will develop and improve listening and talking schools through presentations on their topic Who Inspires Me!
- Children will work on listening for instructions.
- Children will continue to explore a variety of spelling rules and strategies; they will explore phonemes and graphemes to deepen their understanding of specific sounds.
- Children will be given the opportunities to read for enjoyment by selecting texts of their choice.
- Children will develop reading fluency through regular practice of short texts, focussing on accuracy, expression and punctuation.
- Children will continue to develop handwriting, learning through letterjoin
- Children will develop their writing by using ambitious vocabulary, paragraphs and good openers during Talk for Writing and photo Fridays.
- They will be exposed to model texts in talk for writing to develop their writing in a particular genre.
- They will develop a knowledge about language through the class novel The Iron Man
- They will learn how to write Newspaper Articles

Numeracy and Maths

- Children will learn about place value exploring three digit numbers up to 1000
- Children will learn a variety of strategies for addition and subtraction up to 1000
- Children will revise the 2,5 and 10 times tables
- They will learn the links between the 2,4 and 8 times tables.
- Children will be able to solve multiplication and division problems within the confines of known tables.
- Children will see the links between multiplication and division
- Children will explore 3D shapes, looking at their properties.
- They will construct 3D shapes from their nets and recognise these in the environment.
- Children will learn about the calendar and be able to plan events.

Expressive Arts

Music

- Children will be involved in creating their own music focussing on beat and rhythm using non-pitched percssion.
- They will be encouraged to give feedback on their own and others performances.
- Children will continue creativity in music through the exploration of sound pictures for Halloween and Christmas

Drama

Health and Wellbeing

- Children will continue to explore friendships and positive relationships.
- Children will explore different feelings and ways we can recognise and label our feelings.
- Children will be encouraged to celebrate what makes them unique and share their qualities and talents within the school.
- Children will look at rights and responsibilities.
- They will construct shared class rules to help ensure all their rights can be met
- They will learn about tolerance and respect for others
- Children will explore growth mi

St. Ninian's Primary Class Overview Term 1 Primary 4

• Children will develop voice, fluency and expression during readers theatre tasks. This will be closely linked to their phoneme of the week and our class novel Dance • Children will learn Scottish Country Dances to allow them to take part in the South Ayrshire Day of Dance on 22nd November Art • Children will continue to explore line, pattern and colour. • Children will create different art piece in relation to events in the calendar year including Halloween, Bonfire Night, Remembrance Day and Christmas.
Religious and Moral Education	French/Spanish
• Children will be learning about the Bible looking at Old and New Testament. • Children will be exploring stories about Jesus and how they can help us in our daily lives. • They will take part in guided meditations to fully embrace Jesus in their lives. • Children will participate in mass regularly and recognise the importance of prayer. • Children will learn about St. Ninian and other saints • Children will create an altar for Mary in October and learn about the joyful mysteries of the rosary • Children will prepare for Christmas during the season of Advent	• Children will look at cultural aspects of France and compare with Scotland. • They will take part in basic conversations. • Children will learn numbers to 60 • They will learn how to express an opinion- I like, I dislike… • Children will be exposed to writing, reading, talking and listening in the language through stories, songs, games and partner tasks.
Interdisciplinary Learning	Other
• Children will focus on the novel The Iron Man • They will investigate magnets in science. • Children will explore germs, hygiene and infection and ways to promote good hygiene to stop the risk of spreading • They will explore the rights and responsibilities of the child. • They will look at how they can contribute within their school and local community – developing library links and links with other organisations. • Children will be involved in an enterprise topic for the Christmas Fayre, learning about budgeting, profit, co-operation, and different roles within a business	• In P.E children will be focusing on games and teamwork. • Children will develop their ICT skills creating new unique passwords to log on. • They will become familiar with shortcuts on the keyboard • Children will develop their word processing skills through dance mat typing • They will have access to TEAMS on glow and will learn how to upload work • They will experience programming through scratch and rodocodo • Children will learn about seesaw as a platform for sharing their learning

St. Ninian's Primary Class Overview Term 1 Primary 4