

The Creative Wellbeing Fund is now open for applications. With learners' mental health and wellbeing a top priority across Scotland, this fund has been created to offer six grants of £12-15,000 to support schools to take a creative approach to addressing wellbeing.

One project will be selected from each Regional Improvement Collaborative. Schools and funded early learning and childcare providers are invited to apply for this unique opportunity which is designed to help partnership groups work together with a creative partner to find innovative solutions to increasing wellbeing and wider sense of achievement.

More information and how to apply can be found here:
