9th March 2018

Dear Parents/Carers

Music Festival 2018

I am pleased to be able to provide you with the times when your child will be performing at the Music Festival. All events will take place in Mareel and the entry is free.

| | | | |
|--------------------|---|-------------------------------------|---|
| Monday 12 March | Bell's Brae Orchestra Fiddle and Accordion 8 (Bell's Brae pupils and Whalsay pupil) | Entrants must be present for 6.45pm | Pupils to be dropped off and picked up by parents. Please ensure that your child knows the arrangements for going home after their performance. |
| Tuesday 13 March | Bell's Brae Choir | Entrants must be present for 9.00am | Pupils to be accompanied by school staff (See separate letter about early arrival at school and clothing for the choir) |
| Wednesday 14 March | Bell's Brae P7n Bell's Brae P7s | Entrants must be present for 9.00am | Pupils to meet and register with teachers at Mareel. Bell's Brae staff will be at Mareel in the foyer from 08:40. Pupils are to go to Mareel and register with their teacher no later than 08:50 as our P7 classes are performing first in the group. |

Music instructors will be contacting parents/carers to notify them of times for solos and duets. On Tuesday 13 March pupils and staff will be walking to and from Mareel so pupils should ensure that they are wearing suitable footwear and clothing. Can pupils please wear white (or light) tops and black or navy trousers.

We strongly advise that all choir members have a good breakfast on Tuesday morning before their performance. Children should never sing on an empty stomach.

Yours sincerely

Cheryl Simpson
Depute Head Teacher
