

The Tooth Story

Once upon a time there was a mermaid and a crocodile.

The mermaid and the crocodile lost a tooth and their teeth flew away on a hot air balloon. One boy saw the hot air balloon and wanted to see what was in the hot air balloon. The boy asked his father to take him up in the air. He went on a bird that was very big and lazy. He saw the mermaid and crocodile swimming as fast as they could to catch the hot air balloon. The mermaid was trying to jump up and get on the hot air balloon to get their teeth back.

The crocodile saw a ladder and said to the mermaid; "I know, we could use that ladder".

So the mermaid swam to get to the ladder.

The crocodile found some rope and the mermaid tied the rope to the top of the ladder and then the rope got caught in the basket. The crocodile climbed the ladder and got the teeth. The crocodile climbed down the ladder. Then the crocodile gave the mermaid his tooth and the mermaid gave the crocodile her tooth and the mermaid turned into a crocodile and the crocodile turned into a mermaid.
