Writing Use one of the story starters to write an imaginative story about an adventure in the snow. Write at least 4 sentences in your homework jotter and remember to include capital letters, full stops and finger spaces. Can you join some of your sentences using the words and, so, but or because? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The friends went out together into the deep snow and they...</li> <li>2. The news said that all schools were closed and the bad weather meant it was likely to be closed for days...</li> <li>3. The kids rushed outside. Everywhere they looked in the street were snowmen. Some were taller than the parked cars...</li> </ol> You could also use this opportunity to complete your spelling homework assignment that was set by Mrs Goodlad.	Maths Online – Caterpillar Ordering Visit the website: www.topmarks.co.uk/ordering-and-sequencing/caterpillar-ordering Choose the ordering activity and select forwards 1 to 100. Then you can try 0 to 999.    Challenge: Try the backwards activities – they're much trickier!	Play Snow Day Bingo Choose some of the activities on the Snow Day Bingo board. If you'd like to, you can post photos of what you did on the General Channel on Teams.

Above all, stay safe and warm and remember to have lots of fun on your snow day!
