

Dear parents and carers,

We wanted to let you know that your child recently saw a live performance of A Home for Hamish at school as part of a Theatre in Schools Scotland tour.

A Home for Hamish is a colourful, immersive and interactive adventure for younger audiences by Scotland-based duo Just Us, presented by Scottish Theatre Producers. Playfully merging dance and British Sign Language the show follows the story of May and their imaginary friend Hamish the Haggis as they travel across Scotland to find a perfect night's sleep.

Created and performed by Deaf Dance Artist, Clare Adam and Autistic Dance Artist, Lesley Howard (Just Us), A Home for Hamish is a space where young people can see themselves, their languages and their sensory needs represented and respected. You can find out more about Just Us and A Home for Hamish here: www.clareandlesley.com

We're delighted to have been able to share the experience of live performance with your child at school and hope you'll have a chance to talk to them about it. We'd love to know what they think so please do email any feedback to us at tiss@imagine.org.uk

A Home for Hamish was brought to your school as part of Theatre in Schools Scotland, a project produced by National Theatre of Scotland and Imagine, which aims to bring world-class dance and theatre to children across Scotland. We would like to inspire children and parents to experience more live shows, so if your child enjoyed A Home for Hamish please do consider visiting your local venue to enjoy a performance together.

Best Wishes,

Theatre in Schools Scotland
