I am feeling... and draw a picture of your choice to go with it. A verb is a doing word - Something you do Example: Running, walking, swimming. Read the following sentences and write down the verb in each sentence. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Peter is walking to school. Eli is swimming in the sea. Mila is climbing up a wall. Nuala is cycling her bike to school. Ales is diving off the diving board. Myla is singing in the shower. Phoebe is reading her book. Ellie is looking for her toy. Thea is playing in the garden. Winnie is hiding under the table. 	   Animals may have a harder time finding food in the snow. If you have any bird feeders at home, you could help fill them up with seeds. If you don't, if you have any dried fruits, seeds, popcorn or cereal, you could leave these out for animals.    If you don't fancy going out in the snow then speak to your family about our school value, respect. How do you show respect at home? Can you try to do some things that show respect to the people you live with?

Challenge: Can you think of your own sentence that includes a verb?

3. Test your sounds: Can you remember how to say each sound? See if you can beat your score! If you found it easy, get an adult to say each sound and see if you can write it without looking.
