

Pupil Questions:

Term 2 High Quality Assessment:

As part of a group, I can create a presentation about our Christmas Enterprise company and deliver it to an audience.

Literacy	Technologies	Health & Wellbeing
With my group, I can write about my enterprise experience. I can confidently deliver my part of the presentation to an audience.	I can use digital technologies to create a PowerPoint presentation for sharing with an audience.	I can work co-operatively with my group to create and sell a product. I can identify and share my skills and qualities with others, helping us all to be successful.

Literacy & English

Listening & Talking

- I can share my ideas about what I think makes teamwork successful.
- Using effective listening and talking skills, I can work with my business group to make decisions.
- With my group, I can 'pitch' our business idea to potential 'investors'.
- I can speak to members of the public when I am selling our product.
- I can listen to the ideas of others.
- I can use appropriate voice and words when speaking in front of an audience.

Reading

- I can read and learn some lines from a script.
- I can look at online suppliers and find prices of items my group needs.

Writing

- I can write a simple script.
- I can write an invitation.
- I can create a poster to advertise our show.
- I can create simple persuasive texts to encourage sellers to buy my product.
- I can create signs, lists, product descriptions and other texts that are required for running a simple business.
- With my group, I can create a basic business plan.
- I can write a simple set of instructions for making my group's product.
- I can write about my ideal job.

Christmas Enterprise & Show

Health and Wellbeing

- I can work effectively in a group.
- I can identify my own skills and qualities and how I can contribute to our group's tasks.
- I can help to identify the skills and qualities of others in my group.

Social Studies

- I can participate in decision making within a Christmas enterprise company.
- I have a basic understanding of the terms 'prototype' and 'market'.
- I understand that a business needs an initial investment of money to buy resources. I realise I might not be able to buy everything I want.
- I can budget effectively to buy the products I need to make a Christmas product.
- I am aware of some of the different jobs within a business.

Religious and Moral Education

- I can retell the nativity story.
- I can explain why Christmas is an important celebration for Christians.
- I can discuss how Christmas is celebrated in my community.

Technologies

- I can design and make a Christmas product using suitable materials.
- I can quality assure products that are being made to sell.
- With adult support, I can use online resources to find products and prices.
- I can take pictures of our Christmas products.

Expressive Arts

- I can work with my group to create a logo for our business.
- I can use my voice, body and facial expressions to communicate ideas.
- I can work from a script to share our nativity play.
- I can speak and sing to an audience.
- I can create my own short drama.
- I enjoy role playing in various scenarios around business and shopping.

Numeracy

- I know and can use appropriate coins and notes.
- I can use addition to calculate total amounts.
- I can calculate how much change is due.
- I understand the term profit.
- I can work with my group to create a fair selling price to enable us to make profit.
- I know that digital technology can be used to pay for items instead of money.