HOT 4

D

1 Write forty thousand one hundred and eight in numerals.

2 21 thousand + 2 units + 6 hundreds + 1 ten =

3 Put these numbers in order, largest first:
23 004, 2304, 24 003

4 Estimate the answer to 19×8.

5 The temperature is 3°C. Overnight it drops 4 degrees. What is the new temperature

6 What are the next two multiples of 7?
70, 77, ☐, ☐

7 What is the volume of a cube with sides measuring 3 cm?

8 What number multiplied by itself gives 64?

9 There are 642 people staying at a holiday centre. At the weekend 387 people leave. How many people are left at the centre?

10 A bookshelf is filled with books whose spines are 4 cm wide. The bookshelf is 52 cm long. How many books will it hold?

11 Complete the ratio, 1:5 6:☐

12 I buy three magazines at £1·45 each. How much change do I get from £10?

13 What is this shape?

14 Is a litre more or less than a pint?

15 There are six cubes in a bag. There are 2 blue cubes, 2 green cubes and 2 red cubes. What chance do I have of pulling out a green cube?