The end of the world

On a halloween night
Samuel was on a walk in a dark street

Suddenly he heard
a creepy sound,

It was a gunshot
from the distance.

Samuel had to dodge the bullet
like he was in the matrix.

Then began scuttering backwards and forwards like a small, frightened mouse, picking up the things they had dropped.

I think the author said this so that we can understand how scared MS EVANS is from MR EVANS and how cautious MS EVANS is. ✓

Page 28 - It was velvet dark in the room, no light from the window because the thick, blackout curtains were drawn. They lay quite still in the darkness, listening to the roar of Mr Evan's voice and the thin squeak of his sister's. Like a mouse answering a lion, Carrie thought.

I think the author has said this so we can understand how powerful MR EVANS is. ✓
