Reindeer

Introduction ✓

This report is about Reindeer. This report will tell you about their habitat, the diet, the appearance and any fun facts.

Habitat ✓

Reindeer live in northern parts of Europe, North America and Asia. They live in The Cairngorm National Park, one of the most beautiful parts of Scotland. ✓

Appearance ✓

Reindeer have antlers that are like fingerprints, none of them are alike. Reindeer have four legs and Reindeer have no more than two antlers on them. They have a short tail and hooves like a horse. Rudolph has a red nose and the other things on them are the same as all other reindeers on the other Reindeers. ✓

8:12:21 The Long Journey

1. To write a detailed description of the setting.

One cold winters day when the snow lay thick like a blanket on the ground, a little girl called Kara and her older brother Jake went out to build a snowman. The snow glistened like stars sparkling in the sky. Kara and Jake worked hard to build not just one snowman but two, one was a snowman, and one was a snowlady.

The snowman wanted to get a hat, gloves and a scarf for his friend so he went on a mission. The snowman went to a farm and he was in a pack of sheep. Next he headed over to a river, the river was as sparkly as a disco ball. He wanted to get over the river but a robin came over and landed on him. The robin tweeted go back and flew away but him wanted this. So he jumped on to a rock and was at the other side. He was over at the snowy mountains where there was a snow blizzard. Then he went to a road where he was hiding behind a bin where he was in the middle of a snowball fight. After that he went to a Motervey and stood at the side where it was sheltered then he went to a city and found Kara and Jake with there mum and dad. Kara turned around and saw the snowman.

The next morning Kara opened her curtains and she couldn't believe her eyes. She saw an empty present laying on the ground. She looked up and saw the snowlady wearing a scarf, hat and gloves. Then she saw them holding hands.

The Journey

to write a detailed description of the setting.

One cold winters day Anna and her older brother Dylan were out making snowpeople a snowman and snow lady. The snow fell gently creating a thick blanket of snow on the ground glistening like stars in the night sky. They gave the snowman a fluffy scarf but the snow lady nothing. At night he left but no one knew where.

He was walking across a long narrow road on a journey up a mountain where he found a huge herd of sheep. They looked like a giant fluffy cloud floating along the road. Eventually he made it up to the top of the mountain. Clouds were floating around, grass swaying and he could see all of that. He then came across a frozen river and he could see his own reflection. After he got across the river he found the motorway. Cars were whoshing past him and he couldn't get across. Across the bridge he went and found himself in a narrow alley. He hid behind a smelly bin because children were having a snowball fight. After he made it past he finally got to where he wanted to go.

travelled He travelled all the way back and it was now night time. He got back to the snow lady and the next morning she had gloves, a hat and scarf. He had gone all that way to get her a gift.

The Day Sage Saved Christmas

1. to edit my writing and include a turning point or cliffhanger to end my story

On the night of Christmas Eve, Sage was sleeping peacefully in her bed, her parents were sleeping peacefully in their bed. All was going good, but suddenly she awoke to a big thud. Sage thought it was one of her books that had fallen, so she looked over her bed to pick up her book. Nothing was on her floor. She looked out her window to see a sleigh!

Sage was amazed by what she had seen. Quickly, Sage went and got up out of her bed, got her night gown on, ran downstairs, got her shoes on and quickly went outside. When she went outside, she ran all the way to where the sleigh was. Sage found Santa and his reindeer. She tried to figure out what had happened.

Sage thought to herself,

"He must have fallen or hit something"

So, from that she was going to drag Santa to her house. But she forgot how heavy and fat Santa was! She used all her might, all her strength, but Santa was too heavy. So, she thought,

"Why don't I get something to put Santa on?"

Of course, Sage thought,

"I'll get my trailer!"

So, she went to her garage to get her trailer and went back to Santa and his sleigh. She picked up Santa by the legs and put him in the trailer.

Now she pulled the trailer to her house. Next she went back to the sleigh and just stood there, looking at everything. Sage said to herself,

"Oh I wish I had Santa's magic right now!"

Just then, a shooting star came by without Sage knowing. She had the rosy red and jolly white suit, the rosy red and jolly white hat, the black glossy boots and, of course, we can't forget about the big, fat, round belly. Sage looked down, looked up, looked around. She had no idea how to be Santa.

But then, she remembered something! She remembered she watched a programme about Santa! She hopped onto the sleigh, got the reins on the reindeer and flew off.

Meanwhile in Sage's garage, Santa had wakened and was wondering where he was. He suddenly shouted "My sleigh!"

Santa used his magic to go to his sleigh and he appeared with Sage in the sleigh. Santa asked,

"What are you doing in my sleigh?"

Sage told him the story and he understood what had happened. He sent Sage home, and the next day she had lots of presents.

I really enjoyed your story, Sophie. ☺

There were strange whining noises and odd whistling sounds that Inran couldn't identify. He felt a shiver run down his spine. What could the noises be? He crept forward. Suddenly he heard a loud moan from somewhere beneath his feet. Could there be dungeons under the castle floor? If so, who or what was down there? ✓
