LI: to include the characters thoughts, feelings, sights and sounds

Ramona was eleven years old, she had curly ginger hair and she loved art and history. One day she got an invitation from her aunt to go to Egypt. Ramona was very happy to travel to Egypt and wanted to see the Pyramid of Giza. Her and her aunt make it Egypt by boat they sailed down the River Nile and when they stopped Ramona found a clock buried in the sand. The clock was shining in the hot sun she dug it up and went to show her aunt. The clock showed the time as midnight but Ramona thought the clock was broken because that wasn't the time. So then she twisted the dial and all of a sudden she travelled back in time with her aunt to Ancient Egypt....

They travelled back in time to when the Great Pyramid of Giza was getting built and she saw the great Egyptian Pharaoh Tutankhamun. Ramona and her aunt were captured and were turned into slaves and made to built the pyramid. But then while Ramona was building a piece of the pyramid she fell in, her and her aunt discovered one of the hidden tombs of Cleopatra. All around them were glittering jewels, Ramonas aunt opened the lid of the coffin but they discovered Cleopatra was not bitten by a snake she had actually died by a scorpion sting on her neck. They discovered on the skeleton Cleopatra was holding a beetle but it was no ordinary beetle, it was a golden beetle. Her aunt took the beetle and then the skeleton grew skin and the organs flew out of the jars. What they discovered was that they had brought Cleopatra back to life. Cleopatra woke up and said, "why am I in a tomb, how long have a been dead for?" Then Tutankhamun's guards find them, and they all get arrested but they do not arrest Cleopatra. Tutankhamun takes Cleopatra to his temple and offers to marry her but she refuses, she demands that they let go of Ramona and her aunt. He would only do that if she said yes to the proposal so unfortunately she said yes, but Tutankhamun lied! In the middle of the night Cleopatra sneaked out of the temple and she hatches a brilliant plan to free Ramona and her aunt, she steals the key from the sleeping guard and she would have loved to come with them by then Ramona tripped over the jug but then she released a terrible plague that ravaged the land. Then the sorcerer asked are you from the future, "did you find the clock?" Ramona said "yes, why do you ask?" The sorcerer said "I made it". So then he asked for the clock back and offers to help get rid of the plague and to send them back home. Then he turned the clock around and unscrewed to release the magic phoenix. Afterwards the phoenix flew out and got rid of all the plagues. So Tutankhamun comes in and notices the clock and grabs it from Ramona's hands and steps on it and smashes it into a thousand pieces.

Tutankhamun grabs Cleopatra and drags her off and locks her into a room, then Tutankhamun announces that the wedding will be the next day. Ramona hatches a plan to break Cleopatra out of her room and to help the sorcerer to make a new clock. But the sorcerer told Ramona how tricky it would be to make a new clock and that Ramona must gather the lens from the broken clock. The sorcerer told them that the gold which made clock had come from an icky gooeey swamp. The sorcerer gave them a map of how to find the swamp, `but the swamp was guarded by an ugly ogre, the sorcerer told Ramona that the ogre had a blind spot which was his most weakest. They travelled to the swap by carriage and when they got to the swamp they didn't see and ugly hideous ogre but then they heard heavy footsteps.. boom boom boom boom and then they saw the ogre, he had a club. Then the ogre saw them and licked his ugly lips.... He came over picks Ramona up and eats her backpack. She;s confused "aren't you an ogre, shouldn't you be eating people?" then the ogre said "I am a vegetarian". So he invited them into his old shack and they all had a good cup of slop. Ramona asked "where do you get the gold from the swamp?" so then the Ogre said you have to dive into the icky slimey river and get it from the bottom of the swamp. Ramona asked "are you kidding?" and the Ogre replied "no I am not kidding". So Ramona checks in her backpack for a swimming costume, and she dives in her aunt goes in with her. They go to the bottom of the swamp and she something glowing and grab it. They grab the gold and swim to the top and kiss goodbye to the ogre.

They give the gold to the sorcerer and then need the ashes of the phoenix to make the clock, luckily they didn't need to travel as the Phoenix that got rid of the plague had turned to dust and the sorcerer used the ashes and the gold and set to work to make a new clock. The clock was finished and Ramona had one more job to do, she had to save Cleopatra form her wedding. They go to the wedding but by coincidence Tutankhamun had choked and had died, Cleopatra was free and decided to go with them. They set the clock forward so that they could go ahead of time. When they arrived home, Cleopatra became and archaeologist and Ramona and her aunt go home and have a lovely dinner and tuck up in their cosy beds.

Story Starter: Waking the Giant

The ground began to shake. Birds sprang from the branches of trees in a state of panic as the huge figure crawled out of the earth.

First it was an elbow...Then a head...Then a colossal, moss-covered, stone face ...

An almighty bellow erupted from the giant's enormous mouth, shaking the windows of the house. He dragged his immense torso out of the ground, then his feet (which were the size of double-decker buses) and stood up to his full height.

Menacingly, he turned and stomped towards the house, a look of hunger in his bulging eyes...

Fraser

4.9.24 Waking the Giant

As he stomped he flattened houses and cars and left making holes and left footprints then birds started feeling towards him. He started smacking birds away from him. Then the Giant started ripping trees and lampposts from the ground, glass all over the ground. The ground started to shake in the town. The town's people were terrified of what they were witnessing (well Das what?) the giant was tearing up the town.

The giant was getting even closer to the end of the street and he was getting hangry. The hangry giant was starting to smell an amazing smell and started to run towards the little cottage. Then he tripped over a big rook rock which was in his path as he ran. Bang! His head hit the ground. He was seeing stars. Gently he gave his head a shake and got back up slowly and started to wobble towards the house. Then he turned around and he saw scared people and all the houses that had been destroyed. The Giant was heartbroken.

Then the giant was about to step on top of a little girl and then the Giant stopped and the giant picked up the girl and put her on the hill where everyone was standing on top of. The giant felt super bad so he started planting trees and getting trees from the forest and started building houses. After a couple days everything was back to normal and then the Giant was never to be seen again.

Her curiosity got the best of her as she wanted to see her new room, she walked in. It was dirty so she walked away to check out another room. She wanted to check out the attic. However her parents wouldn't let her, she still sprinted up ignoring all her parents warnings. Scarlett found a small library corner, she saw a glowing book sitting on a blue chair. She started to open it slowly knowing something was waiting on her.
