

Right of the Month Challenge!

September

Every month, the Rights Respecting Pupil Voice Group will set a home challenge that focusses on a particular right. These will be used to create monthly displays around our school and participants will be rewarded with class points.

Here is our very first Right of the Month:

Article 7: You have the right to a name, and the government should officially recognise this. You have the right to a nationality (to belong to a country).

Your class challenge is...

Fancy writing A poem?
Pi C k your name
You can w R ite all about yourself
Use y O ur imagination
Choo S e the right words
T ell us your story
Make it I nteresting
Be C reative!

Create an acrostic poem with your first name using words that tells others all about you.

Your home challenge is...

How did you get your name? Discuss with someone at home how you got your name, why did they choose it, would you change it? Next, create a portrait of who lives in your house, label them with their names and add any interesting facts.

Please submit all challenges to your teacher by Thursday
26<sup>h</sup> September.

Remember to tweet us at '@KPS_RRSAjourney'.

Good luck, from Miss Burns and the Rights Respecting Pupil Voice Group.
