

Appendix 13

Our staff took part in Emotion Coaching training with our local learning community during an inset day. Training provided information about the emotion coaching approach and ways in which we can support pupils in regulating their emotions and de-escalating situations effectively.

"Helping children and young people to understand the different emotions they experience, why they occur and how to handle them." (Gottman 1996)

