Dear Parent/Carer,

Respectme

On Wednesday 26th October Respectme will be visiting our school to deliver workshops to our two Primary 3 classes.

Respectme are a charity who are 'Scotland's Anti-Bullying Service' and they provide help and support to children, families and schools across the country.

We have very close links with one of their Participation Officers and have been very lucky to be given the opportunity to receive one of their new workshops.

The staff from Respectme will be taking photographs to use on their website.

Please note that children who do not have permission to be photographed will not be included within the photographs.

Yours sincerely
