Where I Like to Read

Write down the different places that you read.

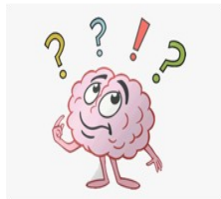

Where do you like to read the most?

What's your ideal situation for reading?

The thing I enjoy most about reading is ...

Something I find challenging about reading is...

My All Time Favourite Book

This can be a book you read at home or in school.

Give the title and the author and give an illustration linked with your book. You could even draw the book cover in this box.

What I love about it...

Explain why this is your favourite book.

This is your chance to convince someone else to read this book too!

What I Would Like to Read More of in the Future

Are there any books, authors, types of texts that you would like to read in the future?

Is there a new genre you would like to try?

Why improving my reading skills is important and where I will use these skills.
