

Identify and sort minibeasts from other animals.
Draw a minibeast habitat.
Take photographs of minibeast habitats outdoors.
Complete this minibeast 'I Spy' counting and addition activity.

Make a 3D minibeast model using playdough.
Create a line drawing of a minibeast.
Colour these minibeast pictures.
Learn and sing 'Incy Wincy Spider'.
Use stick puppets to role-play the song 'Incy Wincy Spider'.

Go on a minibeast hunt in my garden.
Draw a map of the places in my garden that I found minibeasts.
Find out about some of the minibeasts that are common in Scotland.
Draw and label some minibeasts that can be found in Scotland.

Complete this comprehension activity about minibeasts.
Label different minibeasts.

Explain what I know about minibeasts to someone at home.

Choose one minibeast and write some facts about it.

Write some interesting adjectives to describe a minibeast.

Read The Cautious Caterpillar and talk about the life cycle of a butterfly.

Sequence the life cycle of a butterfly.

Talk about why some people are afraid of certain minibeasts.

Draw a picture of something I am afraid of.

Talk to someone about who might help when I feel scared.

Skills developed in this grid include:

- fine motor skills
- communication
- problem-solving
- talking and listening
- independent writing
- reading for information