

Faces of Friendship

The best thing about having friends, is that they appreciate you for your uniqueness.

On the left hand side of the picture, draw half of your own face. On the right hand side, draw half of your friend's face.

You are both unique, but together you make a great team!

