

Define the word extinct.

Name some animals that are endangered.

Explain what a palaeontologist does.

Identify on a map some countries where dinosaur fossils have been found.

Recreate a dinosaur skeleton.

Find out what the terms herbivores, carnivores and omnivores mean.

Sort dinosaurs by what they like to eat.

Use the internet to find pictures of dinosaurs.

Use a ruler to measure the size of my toy dinosaurs.

Make a 3D dinosaur skeleton from straws.

Colour pictures of dinosaurs.

Make a fossil imprint in salt dough.

Find household objects that can recreate dinosaur sounds.

Describe the behaviours of different dinosaurs and use movement to represent these behaviours.

Look at pictures of dinosaurs and think of adjectives to describe them.

Read dinosaur fact cards to find out more about dinosaurs and make notes about what I am learning.

Write about my favourite dinosaur.

Write a fact file for a dinosaur of my choice.

Write about something I am afraid of and explain why.

Design a poster that encourages others to be brave.

Write down words to describe the personality and behaviour traits of a different dinosaurs.

Draw a picture of a dinosaur that is most like me and write down the reason for choosing that dinosaur.

Skills developed in this grid include:

- fine motor skills
- communication
- problem solving
- talking and listening
- independent writing
- creativity

