

Nowhere Emporium

Chapter 27 answers

1. If the wrong person got their hands on the book, they could use it to hurt the Emporium as well as help it.
2. He realised this because the Emporium was crumbling quicker now that Sharpe had the book.
3. The magpies.
4. There was broken stone where the fountain should have been. The silvery liquid was gone. There were lots of sharp bits of rock sticking out and one had blood on it.
5. A magician can't steal a magical object from another magician because the bond between them is too strong. He must win it from Lucien.
6. The magpies attacked Sharpe and that gave Daniel a chance to run away with the book.

Chapter 28 answers

1. Daniel was asking lots of questions at the beginning which shows that he was scared and worried about what would happen. When he heard water splashing, he froze in fear. When he saw Ellie he laughed with relief. The author explains it through Daniel's actions.
2. Mr Silver was trying to protect Ellie. He knew that if Sharpe found her he would harm her.
3. She might have a plan to help find Mr Silver.
4. They might go to the Library of Souls to try and find out more information about what happened between Mr Sharpe and Mr Silver.
