

Chapter 31 answers.

I won't showcase my art skills here but some of the quotes you could have included are:

The carpet was the colour of fresh blood (page 223)

Row upon row of seats padded with red velvet, all facing a huge screen. (page 223)

The man was tall and gaunt, with sandpaper-rough skin and a patch over his left eye. (page 223)

He wore a black uniform with gold piping and carried a torch. (page 223)

He smelled of dust and sugar. (page 223)

A large section of his head was completely bald but there were places where hair sprouted (page 224)

The hair was different colours and different lengths (page 224)

He had a hollow eye socket (page 225)

His eye socket acted as a projector and projected the film onto the screen (page 225)
