

Nowhere Emporium answers

Chapter 29

Michelle showed Lucien how much she loved the Emporium.

'It cannot be more beautiful than the Crystal Lake.' (Page 209.)

As a result, he made a new Wonder for Michelle every night.

'Barely able to speak through her amazement' (page 210)

'She laughed and stared around like a child' (page 210)

The simile: He dropped his glass and it shattered on the grass, wine spilling like blood.

This works well as it makes you think about blood and how it can flow quickly.

Chapter 30

1. Sharpe's book was different as the words were jumbled up and it didn't make sense. It was like this because he had stolen so many ideas and time from other people.
2. There is no right or wrong answer here as it is your opinion.
3. The librarian was made of ink and he dissolved into ink.
4. This is your opinion again.
5. They were bookcases.

Chapter 30 visualisation

You might have different answers but these are possible answers:

Three things that Daniel could feel when he was at the Library of Souls – a cool breath of air on his face, the magpie swooping towards him, his legs were burning

Three things that Daniel could see – the librarian with a white hood, Sharpe's book, the bookcases

One thing that he could smell - ink

Three things that he could touch - the black liquid between his fingers, Sharpe's book, the boat

Two things that he could hear – the groans and creaks of the emporium, the whispering voice 'welcome to the Library of Souls'.
