Treasurer Report

- Report circulated
- Only additional change is wooden letters have been ordered for nursery, Claire to be reimbursed circa £117
- Agreed to continue paying for Learning Journals and School App.
- School won £1000 from Tesco Tokens. Bid was for outdoor blocks. £1000 doesn't buy a lot of blocks, really need a double pack so need more money.
 - Led onto discussion about fundraising and needing to be aware of the cost on parents given rise in cost of living.
 - £220 in After School Club Account that could be used

Tinto Fund Raising

- Village Day 4th June.
 - Letters have been issued for donations of food etc. for Village Day
 - Probably need 100s of rolls/hotdogs
 - Charge £2 for hotdogs, Sweetie cones for £2, Tea/Coffee £1
 - Bottled water and diluting juice
 - 9am to 4pm, 4 people on stall at a time
 - Home Baking Donations to be brought on day
 - Tombola prizes being handed into school
 - Need plenty of change
 - Napkins/bags for homebaking
 - Jean has made a poll to be put on FB and App for people to sign up for slots
 - Gazebos/tables/extension cables
- Shorts and Shades Disco – 16th June

After School Club

- Bank Balance £220.24
- Chess and Netball have been going well
- Can continue to have things on in evening without being a separate After School Club
 - Lego, Movie Night, Board Games, Card Games

Head Teachers Report

- See circulated report

- Residentials went well. 4 nights was probably too much for P7s so booked for 3 nights next year
- Louise extended her thanks to staff who gave up their free time to give children such a great experience
- Transitions
 - Mix of virtual and in person
 - Positive so far, good feedback
 - P7s doing a virtual programme with High School. Also doing a Pupil Passport.
 - 3 day visit to High School 6th-8th June
- Classes & Staffing
 - Same class set up as current year - 1/2, 2/3, 4/5, 6/7
 - Changing all the time
 - 1 extra teaching day for early attainment
- Curriculum Rationale
 - Now on sway – easier to read than on word
 - Any feedback to Ms Stark ASAP
- Budgets
 - Next meeting to discuss what to use participatory fund
- Cost of School Day
 - Link sent to parents to complete questionnaire
 - Teachers said uniforms were most expensive, followed by trips and snacks
 - Slide presentation – to do at start of next meeting.
